

LAURENT MALIER
Executive Vice President
Global Technology R&D
STMicroelectronics

Laurent Malier is Executive Vice President of STMicroelectronics, Global Technology R&D, and has held this position since July 2025. This role encompasses both Front-End and Back-End technologies of ST.

After several years of research in chemical physics, Malier worked at the French Ministry of Defence from 1995 to 2000. He then joined Alcatel Optronics, first to lead new-product development and later managed semiconductor activities. Malier was appointed Front-End R&D and Manufacturing Director for Avanex Group that merged Alcatel's and Corning's opto-electronics operations in 2003. In 2005, he joined the French technology research center CEA-LETI as deputy director, Strategy and Programs, and became CEO of LETI in 2006. In 2015, Malier joined ST to drive the Company's Digital Technology R&D. He was promoted to Group VP, RF & Communication sub-group in 2020 and became Executive Vice President, Digital Front-End Manufacturing and Technology, in 2022.

Malier was elected as Member of the French "Académie des Technologies" in 2019. He has authored 29 publications in physics and solid-state chemistry.

Laurent Malier was born in Paris, France, in 1967. He graduated from the Ecole Polytechnique and has a PhD in Physics from Paris-Saclay University.
